As if we needed reminding that we live in Texas -"if you don't like the weather, wait a little while" - following the record 12 inch snowfall in February, we saw the first 75 degree days of the year followed by another day of snow on the second day of spring. And of course we've had our first booming spring thunderstorms. Warm weather does finally seem to be settling-in, the greens and fairways are greening-up, and golfers are more than happy to return to the course after the unusually severe winter.

Over the last few weeks, Golf course superintendent, Jeremy Johnson and his crew have been busy sawing, trimming, hauling, and chipping the thousands of tree limbs broken by the record snow in February. They've done a fantastic job in handling this momentous task. Thank you!

If you haven't already met our new head golf professional, Robert Dugger, be sure to go by the pro shop and introduce yourself. Robert, a graduate of Lamar University and PGA member since 1997, is very personable, dynamic, and has an extremely strong background in all aspects of golf operations. With a focus on increasing member satisfaction by exceeding expectations, I'm confident Robert will be a valuable asset to our Club. Welcome Robert!

Most of you know Rhonda Whisenant, and I'm sure you'll want to join me in congratulating her on her new position as Membership Director. Rhonda has a challenging task and I'm sure she will appreciate receiving your referrals for new members. Don't forget the new Corporate Golf Membership category that was introduced last month.

Nominations have already been solicited from the membership for the three new members that will be elected to serve a three-year term on the Board of Governors beginning June 1st. You will receive notification of the candidates along with your ballot by April 15th. Your ballot must be returned to the Club by the close of business May 15th. Results of the election will be posted 7 days after the election and announced in the June newsletter. Be sure to cast your vote in the election of your representatives to the Board of Governors. J3

A reminder to all golfers 50 years old or older... Thorntree needs your help in defending its 2009 Championship of the Dallas Seniors Interclub league. Not only does this provide you the opportunity to play at 12 country clubs around the metroplex, it's fun! You don't have to play in every event as our 10 player team can, and will, vary for each one. April 13th is at Walnut Creek CC, April 28th is at Gleneagles CC, and June 1st is at Timarron CC. For more information or to participate, contact Thorntree's DSI coordinator, Jack Easter on his cell at 972-977-7399 or by email at jackystar@aol.com.

Don't forget to support the Third Annual Rally for the Cure being held Saturday, May 8th. Both golf and tennis events are being held this year. Participants do not have to be members of Thorntree CC so be sure to invite your friends and business associates to participate. The entry fee ($75 golf, $50 tennis) includes event participation, dinner, prizes, goody bags, and both a silent and live auction. Invitations are available at the front desk and at both the tennis and golf pro shops. For more information, call rally tournament chair, Sherry Boles at 972-296-2270 or email her at sherryboles@sbcglobal.net.

One last reminder... bring a guest to play golf or tennis, join you for lunch or dinner, or attend one of our many social events. You can simultaneously entertain, have fun, and expose your guest to the Club and its many amenities. Take advantage of the great Golf Special... $35 guest fee Tuesday through Friday includes greens & cart fee and buffet lunch for both member and guest. $29 guest fee on Saturday and Sunday after 12 noon or $40 before 12 (lunch not included Saturday or Sunday). You won't find a better deal anywhere!

I look forward to seeing you and your guests at the Club.

- May 6 - Eileen Sexton, host

- July - no meeting
- Aug 5 - Alice Rana, host
The Help by Kathryn Stockett

7-8:30 pm. New ladies are always welcome!

Outliers: The Story of Success (May 6). Malcolm Gladwell examines the factors contributing to high levels of success. He presents, through anecdotal examples, his thesis that it is often not the most highly talented or brilliant who achieve phenomenal success. Along with Gladwell's "10,000-Hour Rule" of persistence and practice, he shows that societal factors and opportunity - as well as the influence of culture, family and friends - contribute to success or lack thereof. Nothing new there! Nevertheless, the anecdotal material and the manner in which the author presents it make for an interesting non-fiction book.

The Girl Who Played with Fire (June 3): Late Swedish writer Stieg Larsson's second novel in his "Millennium Trilogy" again features a journalist/publisher and his young computer-hacker friend Lisbeth (she of the dragon tattoo from the first novel). This Nordic thriller critiques Swedish society and "explores misogynistic men at all levels and the women they exploit." Taking the law into her own hands to expose a slick sex-trafficking business and the corrupt government officials who cover it up, Lisbeth once again amazes with her unorthodox stealth and extraordinary brain power. Readers find themselves quietly cheering for the upright male protagonist journalist - and especially for the secretive girl who hates men for very good reasons of her own!

Either Kathi, Doris, or the host will email directions (along with a reminder to RSVP) before each meeting, so if you wish to be on the mailing list, send your information to Doris (dwhitley2005@yahoo.com) or Kathi (kmackermann@tx.rr.com).
